

I am opposed to the proposed introduction of broadband over power lines. Evidence suggests that it will negatively impact HF communications for shortwave listening, amateur radio, WWV, military, homeland security and other uses.